TEMPE

Mr. Gillis, father of Mrs. Dowdle and Mr. Gillis, a brother of Mrs. Dowdle, came in from California a few days ago. They, with the Dowdle family and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart, left yesterday for a summer's outing tour in the White mountains east of Tempe.

Mrs. G. H. Anderson, who has spent the past few months with Mrs. Truitt Bertleson southwest of Tempe, will leave in a few days for her home in Pittsburgh, Pa. She came here in rather poor health, but has gained over fifteen pounds since her arrival and is exceedingly well pleased with this part of the world and hopes to return next winter.

Tomlinson & Windes report the sale of 550 shares of Rinconada oil stock Monday.

B. F. Saylor has fifty acres of wheat that he is sure will yield over 2500 pounds per acre. Instead of having it headed, as is the usual way of taking care of the ripe grain, Mr. Saylor had it cut with a binder. He is offered by the millers considerably more for it because of harvesting it in this manner. It is said that it is worth much more for flour.

A drive southeast of Tempe will certainly surprise even a Tempeite if he has never taken a trip in that direction. After leaving the many pretty smaller ranches within six or eight miles, one finds section after section of alfalfa or grain—no ordinary patches—but by the section. One district especially noticeable is that in which are the ranches of W. W. Dobson, George Dobson and Johnson. The broad landscapes of green alfalfa fields are decked with haystacks and sprinkled cattle.

The first two crops are now nearly put into large stacks which are fenced for protection from the feeding cattle. A section of unusually fine wheat is being harvested by Leonard Metz. It is not just the alfalfa and grain fields in themselves that are so attractive, for they are usual sights, but it is the vastness of the expanse of it, all so rich and green at present, that makes it so beautiful.

Mr. James McNell and sister, Miss Nellie McNell, will leave in a few days for an extended visit in the state of New York and a look at the Buffalo exposition.

Mr. Sandoz is finishing the work of building the fine second crop of hay on the ranch of Ole Olson. Mr. Olson has just been married. Previous to this happy occasion he had finished a handsome residence and now has one of the best ranches and the prettiest homes on the south side.

Dr. Charles H. Jones was a professional visitor in Phoenix yesterday.

Tom Sutton, the candy man, did business with Tempe merchants yesterday.

John McLean will shortly leave for an extended visit with friends in Missouri, New York and Canada. Mr. McLean is the Tempe tinner and has a host of friends here who wish him an enjoyable trip.

Manager J. C. Page of the Sunset and T. Co. was a business visitor in Tempe yesterday.

People should be very careful of this kind of water their cows are drinking as the doctors say that foul tanks are the cause of about every epidemic that we have of this kind.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McQueen took the train for Vassar, Mich., last night. Mrs. McQueen, who has been quite ill for the past few months, will spend the entire summer there, and returns about September 1st. Mrs. McQueen will visit Milburgh, Vassar, Bay City, Saginaw and Detroit, and will return the latter part of July.

AN OHIO MAN'S TESTIMONY

Been All Around and Arizona Climate Suits Him Best.

From the following, published in the Daily Tribune of Warren, Ohio, Arizona may reasonably expect one more prominent resident from that state:

"C. L. Montgomery of Coalburg is quite a globe trotter. He is now thirty years old and he began his wanderings at twenty-one, when he left Coalburg for the first time. Since then he has made five trips, starting from his native town each time. Mr. Montgomery is troubled with weak lungs and believes his constant traveling has kept him alive.

"There is no climate, however, equal to Arizona for lung trouble, said he yesterday to a Tribune man. Mr. Montgomery has spent a year in Seattle, viewed it as lead mine, Montana's copper mines and Colorado's gold and silver mines, looked over the scene of the Galveston flood, walked over Custer's battle field, stopped off in Indian territory, tramped through Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, saw the greatest oil well in Texas the second day the oil was struck, tried Florida's climate, sailed down the Ohio to New Orleans—in fact, he could talk to you on any day and not get through half the places he has been.

"Mr. Montgomery is an interesting talker. In the fall he will start out on his sixth trip and probably locate permanently in Arizona."

Papa—Where's my umbrella? I'm sure I put it in the hall stand with the other last evening.

Willie—I guess Mabel's beau took it when he went home last night.

Mabel—Why, Willie? The idea.

Willie—Well, when he was saying good-night to you I heard him say, 'I'm going to steal just one.'—Philadelphia Press.
